

Dear Fundraiser,

Thank you for considering the possibility of fundraising for CRY (Care and Relief for the Young).

CRY is a small charity, dedicated to caring for disadvantaged, destitute and suffering children, young people and their families. We have provided nearly £3 million in the last 15 years rescuing and restoring young lives broken by poverty, oppression, exclusion, abuse, and providing appropriate opportunities for a better future.

This has been achieved through the hard work and dedication of a very small core team and many volunteers, like yourself, who have had a great deal of fun and success in running events, large and small, and encouraging people to donate to the charity.

CRY has worked in many countries establishing varied programmes, such as:

- Setting up 'professional' orphanages, day centres and night shelters to care for abandoned children, following the fall of communism, in places like Albania, Ukraine and Romania.
- Self-support/education schemes, in agriculture, to enable families to feed themselves in places like Zimbabwe and Armenia.
- Establishing healthcare programmes in Cambodia, supporting pregnant women, greatly reducing maternal and child mortality rates and being involved in the 'think twice' project in South Africa, developing educational materials for use in schools to address the ever-growing problems of child abuse and HIV/Aids.

CRY continues to expand its influence globally and we are currently seeking to increase our projects in Zimbabwe (well watered gardens), further home and care centre developments in Albania, Lesotho, India, Myanmar, Philippines and Thailand plus schooling projects in Ghana with further healthcare needs in Cambodia also urgent.

Our funds are made up of income from charity shops, child and project sponsorship, occasional grant funding, charity events and fundraising activities such as those being considered by you.

Thank you again for considering fundraising for CRY and please do not hesitate to contact us should you require any support, or simply to bounce some ideas around.

Remember... every donation changes lives, expect results and enjoy yourself!

CONTENTS

Included in this pack is a selection of resources to help you in your efforts. This includes:

1. 'The way forward' - a helpful guide of ideas and information put together with help from Rev. Ray Avent (a long term supporter and fundraiser for CRY).
2. "The A-Z of Fundraising" - packed full of one line ideas for events and functions.
3. "Inform CRY" to let us know all about the events you are running. It is particularly helpful to know of events in advance where there will be press coverage etc. (Please feel free to send the information by e-mail if that's easier for you)
4. "More Resources" form should you need any more fundraising materials. You can also use this form should you wish to have a CRY representative speak at your event/function. (Please feel free to send the information by e-mail if that's easier for you)
5. Sponsorship Forms. When organising a sponsored event, it is possible for us to claim back the tax (28%) on any sponsorship given by UK taxpayers if they have completed a gift aid declaration. To help with this, we have included a gift aid declaration on our form. (Cheques should be made payable to 'CRY')
6. 'Every Child' CRY DVD, which gives you a good overview of the charities works and is a great tool to show at your events and to encourage people to attend events.

THE WAY FORWARD

Turning Caring into Changed Lives

- The “DVD Way” Forward
Show the CRY DVD to your family or your own particular circle of friends. Show it to workmates at lunchtime or coffee break. Make a date to show it to other ‘link’ people you know. Encourage interested people to use their existing situations and skills to raise awareness and valuable funds.
- The “Change a Child’s Life for Ever” approach
Now loan or show the CRY DVD to families, Mums from toddler groups, retired citizens, at tea parties or suppers for all age groups. Invite people to sponsor a child. Share that input into young lives makes a big difference - for ever! Have CRY Literature readily available and try to make sure everybody gets a copy.
- The “On-Off Laid-Back Event” or Two
Gather a few friends or local supporters. Decide on an uncomplicated local event and do some local leaflet dropping and poster advertising. Try - Coffee Mornings or Tea Parties; Cake Stall; Bric-a-brac; Produce and Plants; Jewellery; White Elephant; Garage Sale; Home Made Cards; Hand Knitted Goods or anything else that your friends do well! Will it raise some money? Will it give you future helpful contacts? - YES!
- “The Media Need You Too”
Your local radio, press and sometimes TV need a supply of worth-telling information! Don’t forget church/ community group magazines and newsletters too. Cultivate steady, informed, precise and well-oiled links. In the end they will trust you for something good. All your approaches for CRY will need a human angle. For example, “Mrs Jones spends half her waking hours and half of her pension on children in Eastern Europe” is a better angle than, “At the recent AGM in the Church Hall last Friday which began at 7.30 p.m, Mrs Jones was thanked for her help last year”.
- The “6 to 12 Months Cobblestone Laying Period”
Keep in mind that you are laying a pathway of people’s support. Each one is a cobblestone that has its own place in the pathway forward. Repeat similar processes and events. Maybe attempt speaking to groups, schools, clubs, etc. Start to focus on a few repeats and potentially larger opportunities for the next year.
- Prayer Links
CRY’s has a Christian ethos and welcome’s the prayer support of many Christians across the world. It has been said that, ‘Prayer is the mightiest weapon committed to human hands!’ Could you turn interest, support or funding opportunities into prayer links for you, your work for CRY and CRY itself.’ Could you pray, even in your day-to-day efforts for CRY.

Remember...
